I am Ahmad from Iran. Iranians celebrate Yalda night every year. It is a festival. We usually go to our grandparents' house. Everybody is happy. My grandmother makes special dinner and cooks local food. My mother is a helpful woman, she helps my grandmother. We wear our special clothes and eat nuts and fruits and don't go to bed till midnight. Our grandfather recites the Holy Quran and then reads poems of Hafez for us. We enjoy staying in our grandparents' house at Yalda night.
